

STYLE | field notes

1. Marine Chronometer, $9,800; ulysses-nardin.com
2. 1972, $42,000; vacheron-constantin.com
3. Emerald, price upon request; harry-winston.com
4. Slim d'Hermès, $3,100; hermes.com
5. Lady Serenade, $16,000; glashuette-original.com
6. Calatrava, $27,210; patek.com
7. Boy.Friend Arty Diamonds, price upon request; chanel.com
8. Round, $50,800; franckmuller.com
9. Bold Motion, $550; movado.com
10. Ladybird, $19,800; blancpain.com

GREAT WHITE WAY

The latest watches to hit the jeweler's vitrine come in crisp shades of ivory, with bands and faces in all manner of materials, from supple leather to luminous mother-of-pearl—all the better to highlight a judicious, delicious splash of sparkling gems. Glitter never had it so good.

FROM LEFT: Katharine Hepburn, c. 1955. Necile, $495; escada.com. Classic Polo, $550; tomenyc.com. His Is Hers Mandarin, $145; claridgeandking.com.

TAILORED TO A T

The power of a well-cut white shirt is undeniable—it's been adopted by a long line of style makers, from Katharine Hepburn to Grace Kelly. With the kind of ease that pairs as happily with jeans as a ball skirt, it's a wardrobe staple worth its weight in gold.

PORTRAIT: EVERETT COLLECTION; ESCADA SHIRT: EMILY KATROEMER/STUDIO D